Operational notes

- All times are Indian Standard Time (IST).
- Four lobbies run simultaneously; assign a referee/result verifier to each lobby where possible.
- Require teams to check in at least 20 minutes before their scheduled match.
- The 60-minute slot includes match time and transition, but actual match length may vary.
- The map veto protocol and no-show grace period must be published by organizers before the tournament.
- Use 21–22 November as buffer days for approved rescheduling or administrative contingencies.

Feasibility note (corrected)

With 4 lobbies, the Round of 64 requires 8 match slots (2 days × 4 slots), the Round of 32 requires 4 slots, and the Round of 16 requires 2 slots. The 23 November schedule is still tight: the Round of 16 ends at 3:00 PM, followed by a 60-minute window for result verification, bracket confirmation and check-in before the Round of 8 starts at 4:00 PM. If any Round of 16 match overruns, move the Round of 8 start to a later time or use a fallback date. The 21–22 November buffer days come before the match day, so they cannot absorb a Monday overrun; organizers should name a later fallback date (for example, 24 November) in advance.

Open items before release

- Name a fallback date for Monday overruns.
- Publish the map veto protocol and no-show grace period.
- Add rules for seeding and forfeits.
- Consider 75–90 minute slots or short gaps between slots, since back-to-back 60-minute slots leave no room for overtime or setup delays.
- State the uneven rest between Wednesday and Thursday Round of 64 winners (an extra day off versus none) in the rules.
